2020 ONLINE Alternative Christmas Market

'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.' - Matthew 25:40

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read about each of these worthy organizations in the pages below. Decide which you'd like to support.
2. You may donate on behalf of someone else (as an "alternative" Christmas gift). When you donate as a gift, you may pick up an informational insert and one of our beautiful Christmas cards in the narthex on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30-4:00 (these documents are free). It is best to call or email amyk@cpclacosta to be sure someone is in before coming by. You can mail the card to a family member or friend and mention that you made a gift to _____ organization on their behalf. Include the informational insert card describing that organization.
3. All donations should be made directly to Christ Presbyterian Church, and may be made via:
  - Electronically using Tithe.ly Click GIVE on our website, www.christ-pres.church and specify your recipients in the comment field.
  - Check payable to Christ Presbyterian Church or CPC. Please indicate which charities you wish to contribute to in the memo line, or attach a note.
  - A check payable to Christ Presbyterian Church using your bank's bill payment feature. List charities you wish to contribute to in the memo line.

CPC supports these ministries with monetary donations and often our time and energy as well. Want to learn more? A link to each group's website is included below.

Thank you for your support,

Beauty for Ashes Scholarship

College scholarships at Point Loma Nazarene University for survivors of human trafficking. For additional information, contact Lindsey Lupo, program mentor and CPC member, at lindseylupo@gmail.com

Camp Pendleton YMCA

Over half of the more than 60,000 personnel at Camp Pendleton are grade E-5 and below and most have young families. YMCA-CP touches lives with needed support to help stretch the low enlisted personnel pay scale, but more importantly with the truth of the gospel and the love of Jesus Christ. Visit their website at <https://www.asymca.org/camp-pendleton-home> for more information.

Casa de Amistad

Tutoring and academic mentoring for children in North County
Visit their website at www.casadeamistad.org for more information.

Community Resource Center

Helping the hungry, homeless, and hurting in North County. Services include housing assistance, a domestic violence program and shelter, food distribution, and much more. Visit their website at www.crcncc.org for more information.

Hands of Peace

This interfaith organization develops peacebuilding and leadership skills in Israeli, Palestinian, and American teenagers through the power of dialogue and personal relationships. Teens attending the summer program attend intensive daily dialogue sessions, take part in educational, cultural and teambuilding activities, including a visit to a church, synagogue and mosque. Visit their website at <https://handsofpeace.org/> for more information.

Heifer international

Since 1944, Heifer has provided food, income-producing animals, and training to millions of resource-poor families in 125 countries. Visit their website at www.heifer.org for more information.

Humble Design

Serving individuals, families, and veterans emerging from homelessness in San Diego by transforming their empty apartments into warm, welcoming and uplifting homes with donated furniture and household goods. Humble Design furnishes over 50 homes across San Diego County each year. Please visit their website at www.humbledesign.org for more information.

All donations should be made directly to Christ Presbyterian Church

Interfaith Community Services

Serving the poor and homeless in North County, this unique, comprehensive system of services propels those in need to their highest level of self-sufficiency. CPC and other churches support Interfaith's work with volunteers, financial contribution, and donations of food and in-kind goods. Visit their website at www.interfaithservices.org for more information.

La Mirada Academy Mission Project

Food, school supplies, Christmas gifts for elementary school children in need. Volunteer opportunities are also available. Contact: Linda Watson at llwatson7@gmail.com or 858-829-1894.

New Day Urban Ministries (Formerly Presbyterian Urban Ministries)

Outreach in urban San Diego – Providing essential services to the homeless, urban poor, veterans and those recently released from prison in a safe, home-like setting. Helping over 9,000 people annually in San Diego communities, New Day provides free and reduced-fee California ID vouchers, replacement birth certificates, groceries, clothing, and much more. Visit their website at www.newdayurbanministries.org for more information.

So-Sew Group

Since 1997, this dedicated and talented group of CPC ladies has met regularly for work sessions and fellowship. They produce baby layettes and baby hats for the YMCA at Camp Pendleton USMC Base, stocking caps for the homeless, lap robes, afghans, quilts and bed/wheelchair balls for the VA hospital. The support you provide for this ministry will go to help defray the actual cost of supplies, much of which is paid for by the So-Sew women themselves. For more information, please contact Gay Schneider at gschneider71118@roadrunner.com
